DEPARTMENT REPORTS:

Police Chief Jerry Chlada Ir.: It's going to be pretty cold this weekend. I hope everyone stays warm. If necessary we will use the lobby of the police department as a warming center.

Fire Chief Boyajian: Reminder if you don't have to go outside don't. Stay inside. 35 degree below zero wind chills are forecasted. If you should need help call the fire department or police department. Fire Chief Boyajian then read a letter to the Village Board recognizing several Police Officers and Firefighter EMTs.

Public Works Director Sam Alonzo: Recommended to those in attendance to leave water faucets at home on with a slight trickle to help prevent pipes from freezing in the extreme cold.

There being no further business, Trustee Kapolnek moved, duly seconded by Trustee Hrejsa that the meeting be adjourned. Upon which the Board adopted the motion at 7:11p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Mitch Milenkovic, Village Clerk

Mayor Jeff Walik and the Board of Trustees

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation for the outstanding response to an accident involving both a fire and a medical emergency on Saturday, January 10, 2026, at the Shell Station located at 3901 S. Harlem Avenue at approximately 12:04 pm.

Your swift action, professionalism, and calm decision-making during a highly dangerous and rapidly evolving situation played a critical role in protecting lives and preventing further harm. Managing fire hazards while simultaneously providing urgent medical care requires exceptional skill, teamwork, coordination, and courage—qualities you all demonstrated throughout the response.

Because of your dedication and commitment to duty, those affected by the incident received the care and protection they urgently needed during a critical moment. Your actions reflect the highest standards of service and underscore the vital role first responders play in keeping the Village of Stickney safe.

I would like to recognize Police Officers Paul Brandemeier, William Dooley, and Leti Leonides as well as Firefighter EMTs Joshua Collier, DeAndre Eagle, Andrew Eurkaitis, Jamal Boulden, and Eric DelGatto and thank them for their bravery, selflessness, and continued service. Your efforts do not go unnoticed, and our community is deeply grateful.

With sincere appreciation,

Jeffrey Boyajian

Fire Chief,

Stickney Fire Department
